Austrian printing technology knocking at Jordan's doors

6 July 2012

On the 6th July 2012 a delegation of the Austro-Arab Chamber of Commerce (AACC) led by Prof. Reinhart GAUSTERER, Vice President of the AACC and Director General of the Austrian company "Österreichische Staatsdruckerei" (OeSD Group), and accompanied by Eng. Mouddar KHOUJA, Secretary General of the AACC, visited Jordan's capital Amman. There they met with several officials and visited companies to discuss the possibilities of bringing Austria's advanced technologies in the field of safe printing to the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan. Moreover they talked about possible cooperation with the OeSD Group. The delegation of the AACC also discussed future Austro-Arab partnerships with Jordanian companies in the field of smart chip cards.

The Secretary General of the Austro-Arab Chamber of Commerce also had a meeting with Mr. Issa Haidar MURAD, First Vice Chairman of the Jordan Chamber of Commerce and Member of the AACC Board of Directors. Both sides discussed the economic situation in the region and latest developments in both chambers. Furthermore, Eng. KHOUJA met with some other members of the Board of the Jordanian Chamber.
