

Courtesy Visit to the Newly-appointed Ambassador of the Republic of Tunisia to Austria

09 February 2024 – Vienna, Austria

On February 9, 2024, Eng. Mouddar Khouja, the Secretary-General of AACC, paid a courtesy visit to Her Excellency Samia Ilhem Ammar, the newly appointed Ambassador of the Republic of Tunisia to Austria, the Slovak Republic, Slovenia, and Croatia. Prior to her current post, Ambassador Ammar served as the Director-General of Cultural Diplomacy at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Tunisia and has been the Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary Ambassador of the Tunisian Republic to Hungary from 2015 to 2020.

The Secretary General received a warm welcome by the Ambassador at the premises of the Tunisian embassy in Vienna. During their meeting, Her Excellency Ambassador Ammar and SG Khouja discussed potential collaborations between Austria and Tunisia across various sectors. Additionally, the Secretary-General provided an overview of AACC's extensive portfolio, network, and ongoing activities.
